THE HOMAGE OF JUSTICE.

Wehave compiled, from various sources, th ollowing disinterested testimonials, which were commanded from their several authors by the los ty patriotism, valor talents and success of Gen. HARRISON, long before he was named for the Prenies and quibbling objections which party malig-nity may now presume to forge against the warworn and time honored patriot and soldier.

The authorities we present against the puny attacks of Loco-Foco Federalism, and which we shall stereotype as an impregnable barricade a gainst all opposition, are no less than the Cox. alsox: GRESSOF THE UNITED STATES, the LEGISLATURES OF INDIANA, and of KENTUCKY, JAMES MADI-SON, JAMES MONROE, COL. RICHARD M. JOHN-SON, ANTHONY WAYNE, LANGDON CHEVES, SI-MON, SAYDER GOV. SHELBY, COM. PERRY, COL. GROGHAN, Cot. DAVIES, and others, including in the illustrious catalogue even Thomas Ritchte

We begin with the testimony of Col. RICHARD M. Johnson, now Vice President of the United States.

Col. Johnson said, (in Congress)-"Who is Gen. Harrison! The son of one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence, who spent the greater part of his large fortune in redceining the pledge he then gave, of his fortune, life and sacred honor,' to secure the liberties of his coun-

"Of the career of Gen. Harrison I need not spenk—the history of the West, is his history. For forty years he has been identified with its interests, its perils and its hopes. Universally be-loved in the walks of peace, and distinguished by his ability in the councils of his country, he has been yet more illustriously distinguished in the

"During the late wer, he was longer in active service than any other General officer, he was per-haps, oftener in action than any one of them, and never sustained a defeat."

James Madison, in a special message to Congress, Dec. 18, 1811, said,

While it is deeply lamented that so many valeable lives have been lost in the action which took place on the 7th ultimo, Congress will see with satisfaction the dauntless spirit of fortitude victoriously displayed by every description of troops en gaged, as well as the collected firmness which distin-guished their commander on an occasion requiring the utmost exertions of valour and discipline

James Manison in his message to Congress, Nov. 1812, said, An ample force from the States of Kentucky

Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Virginia, is placed, with the addition of a few regulars under the command of Brigadier Gen. Hannson, possesses the entire confidence of his fellow soldiers, among whom are citizens, some of them volunteers in the ranks, not less distinguished by their political stations than by their, personal merits.

In Mr. Madison's message of Dec. 1813, the compliment was extended, as follows:
The success on Lako Eric having opened a pas sage on the territory of the enemy, the officer commanding the Northwestern arms, transferred the war thither, and, rapidly pursuing the hostile troops, fleeing with their savage associate, forced

The following tribute of proise was paid to General Harrison, in 1811, by eleven of the officers who fought under his banner at one battile of Tippecanoe

"Should our country again require our services to oppose a civilized or a savage foe, we should march under Gen. Harrison with the most perfect confidence of victory and fame."

States, moment, withhold our meed of applause."

The following resolve of both houses of the Legislature of Kentucky, will have a similar effect on the nerves of those who circulate the stander respecting the "white horse," and the slander respecting the "white horse," and the fall of the gallant Col. Daviess;

Legislature of Kentucky, Jan. 7, 1812.

Resolved, By the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Kentucky, that in the late campaign against the Indians upon the Wabash, Gov. William Henry Harrison has behaved like a hero, a patriot, and a general; and that for his cool, deliberate, skilful and gallant conduct in the battle of Tipecanoc, he well deserves the warmest thanks of his country and his nation.

Gen. Anthony Wayne, in his Letter to the Sec retary of War, giving an official ecount of his sanguinary Indian Eattle, in 1792, said: "My faithful and gallant Licotemant Harrison, rendered the most assential service, by communica ting my orders in every direction, and by his conduct and bravery, exciting the troops to press for

The following resolution, which passed both houses of Congress, with but one dissenting voice, is calculated to make the " petticont heros," feelif such slanderers can feel any thing but the lash.

"Resolved by the Sanata and House of Represen-tative of the United States of America in Congress assembled. That the thanks of Congress be, and they are hereby, presnted to Major General William Henry Harrison, and Isaac Shelby, late Gover-nor of Kontucky, and, through them to the officers and men usder their command, for their gallantry and men useder their command, for their gallantry and good conduct in defeating the combined British and Indian forces under Major General Proctor, on the Thames, in Upper Canada, on the fifth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, tory.

Lastly we come to the neat compliment of Thomas Richie, Editor of the Richmond Enquirer, the leading organ of the Coalition in the South, who now brandishes his old "chapeless sword with two broken points," and threatens devastating war upon the congvorer of the Brittish and Indian Coalition of the West! The Richmond Enquirer said:
